

3 – Month Paid Internship Opportunity New Hampshire Golf Association

Position: P.J. Boatwright Jr. Communications and Operations Internship (provided through a grant from the USGA)

Term of Internship: May - August

Office Location: Concord, NH

Job Description: As a P.J. Boatwright Intern with the New Hampshire Golf Association, the intern's responsibilities fall within several different aspects of golf administration. The internship includes but is not limited to: communications, junior golf, member services, handicap inquiries, course rating, media relations, tournament management, and other general office administration. The internship will provide a wide range of hands on experience for an individual seeking to pursue a career in golf administration.

Job Duties

- Management of NHGA Junior Tour Social Media Accounts (Instagram and Twitter)
- Website Maintenance, photography, and other Communications tasks as needed
- Golf course set-up
- Tournament preparation (pairing sheets, scorecards, local rules, etc.)
- Assist with processing tournament applications
- Maintain tournament entry database
- On course tournament work (starting, scoring, and other duties)

Requirements

- Proficiency with various social media platforms
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Self-motivated, personable, and willing to work flexible hours
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office programs
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to work with all ages
- Reliable transportation
- Golf knowledge not required but preferred

Compensation & Hours

- $2,000 per month. Compensation includes expenses and any applicable overtime pay.
- Hours depend on tournament schedule and duties. Office Days (typically 2-3 per week) are 9AM – 5PM
- Out of office expenses will be covered by the NHGA (meals, mileage, tournament lodging, etc.)
- Staff clothing for tournament work

All interested applicants should e-mail a resume and cover letter to:

Kinsey Hoffmann, Tournament Director
khoffmann@nhgolf.com

Resume Deadline is February 9th, 2024