

2004 Tri State Tournament

The New Hampshire Tri-State team captured its third consecutive title today with a 1/2-point win over host state Maine. The New Hampshire victory was sealed when #2 player Craig Steckowych tied the Vermont second player by winning the 18th hole of their match to capture the extra half point the NH team needed to win. Leading the way for the team were Dan Arvanitis, Stephen Lane, Mike Blair, Bob Mielcarz who all captured two points today; garnering 1 1/2 points for the team were Craig Steckowych, Travis Woods and Gerard Driscoll. Rounding out the team total of 16 1/2 points were Nick Kalil, Matt Arvanitis, Phil Pleat and Keith Bakaian. Other team members are Derek MacAllister, Josh Allard and Peter Harranty. The match was shortened to just the 18 hole individual match play when Saturday's Foursome play was cancelled because of inclement weather. Next year the tournament returns to New Hampshire.
